Sabine continued: "While Kolchak has not yet been recognized by the allies, I am hoping and praying that the series of victories which will culminate in the downfall of Bolshevism will result in full recognition and unlimited aid to Kolchak, thus establishing a firm government in Russia."

PLAYS PACKER INVESTIGATORS

Republican Senator Says Some of Them are Socialists.

Asserting that the Federal Trade Commission's office in Chicago is "a center of sedition and anarchy," Senator Watson, Republican, of Indiana, yesterday introduced a resolution asking for an investigation by a Senate committee to ascertain how many of the employees of the commission have been or are engaged in the distribution of Socialistic propaganda.
The Senator, of course, specifically disclaimed any intention to defend the packers.
Among those named by Senator Watson as having been engaged in the packers' investigation were: Stuart Chase, Raphael Mallen, R. N. Buck, Johann G. Ohsol, Daniel A. Kemper, Carl S. Haines and a Mrs. Baldwin. He quoted also from the report of the Trade Commission on the packers in which reference was made to Walter Y. Durand, Francis J. Heney, Arthur B. Adams, Basil M. Manley, William W. Bays, Vandever Curtis, and about fifteen others who participated in the investigation. He thought some of them were Socialists. Manley and Heney are well known Progressives.
According to the Senator, Stuart Chase had charge of the investigation of the packers in Chicago, and supervision of all investigations of independent packers in the United States. He is the author of a book called "A Honeymoon Experiment," which, the Senator said, reflects the Socialistic view of himself and wife. Regarding Raphael Mallen, the Senator said that he was a Socialist.

The formal reading of the peace treaty was completed in the Senate late yesterday. Immediately thereafter Senator Lodge announced that the Johnson amendment would be the next in order, and upon his statement that there are a great many Senators who desire to speak upon it, consideration of the amendment was put over with the understanding that the debate will begin today.
It is believed by Senator Lodge that the amendment can be disposed of in about three days, so that the vote can be taken Thursday. Opportunity will be given for the fullest discussion of the principle involved in the amendment.

HANDS OFF, GARY WARNS COUNCIL ON STRIKE ISSUE

Declares It Should Be Allowed to Run Its Course.

FIRM FOR OPEN SHOP

Bargaining Solution Expected to Be Submitted Today.

Judge Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, served notice on the Industrial Conference this afternoon to take no action on the steel strike. Mr. Gary is a delegate to the conference and is a member of the public group.
When the assembly reconvened yesterday afternoon, he took the floor and read a prepared statement. He had come direct from New York, where it was reported he conferred with representatives of the larger financial interests so that their position on the proposal of collective bargaining might be definitely known.
His statement was further evidence of the wide gulf separating capital on the one hand and the labor and public groups on the other, and this, in fact, is the state of affairs which imperils the progress of the conference.

MOBS BREAK UP GERMAN OPERA

Jeers of Service Men in New York Drown the Singers' Voices.

New York, Oct. 20.—The German opera, "Die Meistersinger," rendered in German, was sung in the Lexington avenue opera house tonight, as advertised, despite vigorous protests from the American Legion and countless civilians, but there was little or no audience to enjoy, for outside hundreds of soldiers, sailors and civilians, clamoring to break into the place and stop the production made such a noise that the best parts of the opera were spoiled.
Discordant shouts arose as the mob clashed with the police, penetrating the wail of the theater. So wild was the disorder without that seetholders were not permitted to leave the theater during the intermission.
The police withheld, as far as possible, the use of clubs upon the soldiers and sailors, but the persistence with which the mob clamored to be permitted to break up the performance rendered occasional use of the night sticks imperative to maintain even a semblance of order, and some of the mob received painful cuts.

SMITH-HEARST BREAK PLEASES REPUBLICANS

New York, Oct. 20.—Republican leaders expressed themselves today as quite content with the open warfare Governor Alfred E. Smith has declared upon William Randolph Hearst. The Republicans took a "we should worry" attitude, and indulged in speculations as to the handicap on Democratic candidates, perhaps more particularly in 1920, with Tammany and Hearst in a bitter factional fight.
Governor Smith has been convinced that he fit upon a popular text for his Woman's Democratic League speech on Saturday, when he opened fire on Mr. Hearst. Saturday evening, yesterday and today he received many telephone messages, letters and personal callers who commended him for opening fight on the editor-politician, and assured him of all manner of support.

MEXICO IS REDS' AVENUE TO U. S.

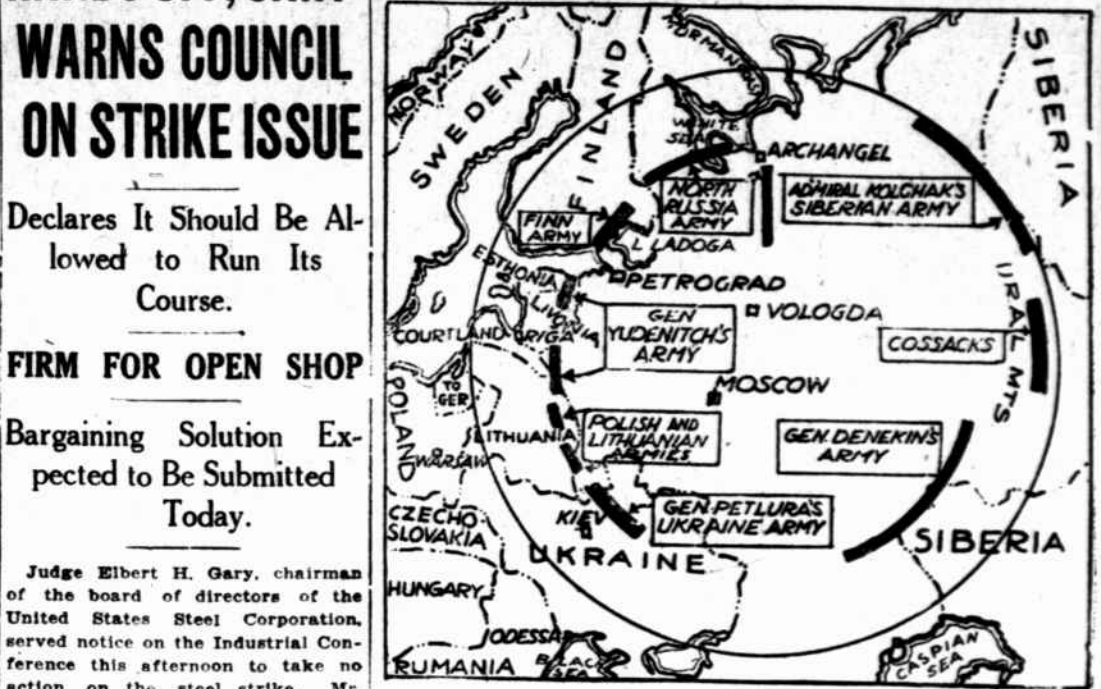

Caminetti Blames Lack Of Appropriations for Border Leak.

Large numbers of undesirables from other countries are circumventing the immigration barriers set up against their entry into the United States at the regular ports by sneaking across the Mexican border.
In acquainting the House Immigration Committee with this situation yesterday, Anthony Caminetti, commissioner general of immigration, placed the blame upon Congress for failing to make adequate appropriations to continue the immigration patrols along the border. This work was kept up during the war, he said, by allotments from the President's national defense fund, but since this fund expired on June 30 the patrols have been largely reduced.
From 3,000 to 5,000 of these dangerous aliens are slipping across the border every month, Representative Hudspeth, Democrat, of Texas, told the committee. Many of them, he declared, are the worst criminals and outcasts of Europe, Japan and China. Some of them are suffering from loathsome diseases.
The Mexican avenue of entry into the United States has become so popular, Mr. Caminetti told the committee, that undesirables already here are sending word back to their friends to follow the same course.

Spanish King's Visit Looked on With Favor

Paris, Oct. 20.—The visit to France and Britain of King Alfonso of Spain is viewed in well-informed circles as having great international significance, especially as regards the relations between France and Spain.
It is freely predicted that the Tangier question, and, indeed, the whole Moroccan problem, will be settled satisfactorily. It is also believed Spain is to collaborate with the big powers in the fundamental work of the league of nations.

VAST ARMIES ENCLOSE BOLSHEVISTS

Strongholds of Bolshevism are menaced by the concerted advances of the armies of the White Russians and their allies. This map shows how Gen. Denekine is approaching Moscow across the plain of Southwestern Russia; Gen. Yudenitch, coming from the east, may be actually in possession of Petrograd. Admiral Kolchak's forces in Siberia have recovered from recent reverses and are pressing forward. The North Russian army is following the line of Volga southward. The Finnish army is in action north of Petrograd. To the south the Poles and Lithuanians are advancing and Gen. Petlura's Ukrainian forces are to the right of them.

DEMANDS INVESTIGATION OF HOUSE INVESTIGATORS

Representative Aswell Declares Republicans Are Frittering Away Time and Money, To the Disgust of Country.

Charging the Republican majority in the House with squandering great sums of money in "noisy investigations to find campaign thunder for 1920," Representative Aswell, Democrat, of Louisiana, yesterday introduced a series of eight resolutions proposing an investigation of the investigators.
While the people demand real constructive legislation, Mr. Aswell declared, the Republicans refuse to act and fritter away the time with irrelevant political matters, "to the discouragement and disgust of the country."
One glaring instance of the majority's inactivity, the Louisiana member said, is the undisturbed slumber of soldiers' relief measures, on which they "can secure action any day they have the courage to tackle them."
The resolutions offered by Mr. Aswell call for information as to the time spent by Congressmen; expenses for clerical help; incidentals, and attorneys' fees by the following investigating committees: Committee on Military Affairs; Select Committee on Expenditures in the War Department; Committee on Expenditures in the Treasury Department; Select Committee on the United States Shipping Board and the United States Emergency Fleet Corporation; Committee on Expenditures in the Navy Department; Ways and Means Committee; Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries, and Select Committee on Waterpower.
"The attitude of Republican leaders on legislation in this House," said Mr. Aswell, "is a disgrace to the country."

DECLARES A. F. L. TAMED STRIKERS

I. W. W. Counsel Says Its Influence Prevented Effective Work.

What Jacob Margolis, counsel for the I. W. W., described as "the taming influence of the American Federation of Labor," has prevented William Z. Foster, one of the leaders of the steel strike, from doing effective work, Margolis voiced this opinion yesterday in testimony given to the sub-committee of the Senate which is investigating the strike.
In his opinion, Foster is too conservative and reactionary. He said that Foster was once radical enough, and still believes he can bring about a reconstruction of society "by boring from within." He expressed the belief, however, that Foster would not be able to proceed very far because of the opposition of the conservative elements of union labor.
Margolis said: "Of the 70 strikes called recently, 62 have not been authorized by the A. F. of L. This indicates a pronounced state of dissatisfaction on the part of the workers affiliated with the federation."

BERNSTORFF TO ANSWER CHARGE

Former Ambassador to U. S. Summoned to German War Inquiry.

Berlin, Oct. 20.—Count Johann Heinrich von Bernstorff, former German ambassador to the United States, has arrived here from Munich in answer to a summons of the national assembly committee investigating the responsibility of individual members of the old regime in bringing about and prolonging the war, as well as for the failures to take advantage of the opportunities to make peace.
Dr. Von Bethmann Hollweg, former imperial chancellor; Dr. Gottlieb von Jagow, former foreign minister; Dr. Alfred Zimmermann, who succeeded him; Dr. Karl Helfferich, former finance minister; Admiral von Capelle, who was minister of marine, and Gen. Erich Ludendorff, all have been "invited" to attend and give testimony.
Those men will be confronted by Count von Bernstorff, who alleges that his efforts for peace through President Wilson and Col. Edward M. House in December, 1916, and January, 1917, were making good headway when Berlin ruined all by a renewal of the ruthless U-boat warfare and that the government ignored his repeated warnings that such a measure would bring America into the war on the side of the allies.

PRESIDENT ALLOWED TO WORK AGAIN

Asks for Official Papers and Request Is Granted by Dr. Grayson—Nature of the Documents Is Not Given To the Public.

BETTER DAY THAN USUAL IS BULLETIN

Digestive Disturbances of Sunday Entirely Disappear and Health of Executive Is Better Than Anytime in Illness.

The President's condition is so much better yesterday that he was permitted to do a little work. The following bulletin from the President's condition was issued last night: "The President has had a better day than usual."

In announcing last night's bulletin Dr. Grayson, the White House physician, said that earlier in the day the President had asked for some official papers in which he is interested, on his promise that he would not examine himself. Dr. Grayson allowed him to have them.

Dr. Grayson did not disclose the nature of the papers other than that they were official. He said that the President went over them with Mrs. Wilson at his bedside and finished with them in a short time.

Entirely recovered from the digestive disturbance of Sunday, President Wilson was said to be much better yesterday. He took his first official cognizance of the Industrial Conference by naming Owen D. Young, of the General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y., as a delegate to the conference in place of Fuller C. Way, of Georgia, who was taken sick.

In addition the President heard with much satisfaction some pleasing election news from Oklahoma, and was informed of some of the happenings of the Industrial Conference.

The noon bulletin from the White House said: "The President is much better today than usual."

DEATH OF RICH MAN PUZZLES

Dressed as Woman, Flushing Youth's Case Mystifies Police and Family.

New York, Oct. 20.—With his parents insisting John W. Lempe, son of a wealthy iron manufacturer of Flushing, was murdered in his power boat, the police are waiting the result of an autopsy at the morgue tomorrow morning before listing it as a case of suicide.
Why the body, when found hanging in the cabin of his boat off College Point was fully garbed in woman's attire, even to corsets and hose, is a puzzle to the police and the family and friends of the victim.

German Opera Banned By New York's Mayor

New York, Oct. 20.—German opera produced in the German tongue is taboo in New York, through an official order of Mayor Hylan tonight, and the proposed production of a German opera tonight at the Lexington Avenue Opera House had to be abandoned.
The mayor's order was the result of a prolonged hearing he gave today at the City Hall to representatives of the American Legion at which the opera producers also presented their case.
In tonight's order Mayor Hylan directed the police to see that the opera was not produced.
